Candidate for Delegate – PSAC NATIONAL TRIENNIAL CONVENTION
Halifax, Nova Scotia.

Strong Voice. Proven Experience. United for Members.

Leadership Roles

- President, CEIU Local 614

- IRCC ORC Departmental Representative

- Alternate National IRCC NVP

Candidate Profile

I am running to be your delegate at the PSAC NATIONAL TRIENNIAL CONVENTION at Halifax, Nova Scotia because our members need bold, experienced leadership that fights at every level. I have a proven record of standing up for workers, resolving grievances, and ensuring member voices drive real change.

Union Experience & Contributions

- Represented Ontario on the National IRCC Committee since 2022, bringing frontline concerns forward and driving accountability.
- Active leadership within CEIU Ontario Regional Council and Local 614.
- Supported labour-management consultations, workplace wellness, and safety initiatives.
- Strengthened communication and engagement across regions.
- Consistently advocates for fair treatment, transparency, and member rights.

Commitment

I don't just speak about member priorities—I act on them with determination and results. At the Triennial, I will fight for policies that strengthen our union, protect our rights, and unite us for the challenges ahead. Members deserve delegates who listen, speak boldly, and deliver.

Vote for experience that works. Vote for leadership that unites. Vote for a voice that won't back down.
