

Karim Somji has been a proud and dedicated member of the Canada Employment and Immigration Union since 2019. Throughout his union involvement, Karim has remained committed to advocating for fairness, supporting members, and ensuring that every voice is treated with dignity and respect.

Karim currently serves as the Alternate National Vice-President for the region and as the Visible Minority Representative for Local 30851. In these roles, he has worked closely with members from diverse workplaces, assisting with grievances, workplace conflicts, duty to accommodate matters, and member representation. He is passionate about helping members navigate difficult situations and ensuring they feel heard, supported, and empowered.

Known for being approachable, dependable, and member-focused, Karim believes that a strong union is built on unity, transparency, accountability, and active member engagement. He strongly believes that frontline workers must have a meaningful voice in the decisions that impact their workplaces and their futures.

Karim is committed to bringing forward the concerns and priorities of members while contributing positively and respectfully to convention discussions. He values collaboration, inclusion, and the importance of strengthening our union for future generations.

If elected as a delegate to the 2027 PSAC National Triennial Convention in Halifax, Karim will proudly represent members of CEIU with integrity, professionalism, and dedication.

Karim would be truly honoured to receive your support.
