I am writing to express my interest in attending the National Triennial Convention 2027 in Halifax as a Delegate. As President of Local 633, it would be a privilege to represent my Local and contribute to the important discussions and decisions that shape the future of our union.

I am deeply committed to member engagement and education, both within my Local and across CEIU. In addition to my role as President, I facilitate JLP workshops and actively advocate for union values in the workplace and the broader community. I believe that for our union to continue to grow and thrive, we must inform, engage, and inspire not only our current members, but also our communities, allies, and young people entering the workforce. It is essential they understand our history, our achievements, and the importance of sustaining and strengthening our movement.

The Convention theme, “Rooted in Solidarity, Rising in Strength,” strongly resonates with me. It calls on us to reflect on the values that ground us integrity, courage, and unity while also challenging us to grow. As a union, we must continually evaluate and strengthen our foundation to remain resilient, proactive, and principled. We cannot afford to be complacent or reactive; instead, we must lead with intention, integrity, and a shared vision for inclusive workplaces that support fair pay, work-life balance, and meaningful opportunities for growth.

I also recognize that we are at a critical crossroads as a union. Strengthening solidarity among members, empowering executive leadership, and building meaningful relationships with allies are essential. Together, we are stronger, and it is through this unity that we can continue to advance and protect the interests of our members.

I am enthusiastic about the opportunity to both learn from and contribute to this important gathering, and I remain fully committed to supporting the CUT AT 300 WORDS
