

Olaide Adebayo

Vice President, Local 633 | CEIU Delegate Candidate

As Vice President of Local 633, I provide strategic leadership that advances member advocacy, strengthens governance, and enhances organizational effectiveness. My leadership is rooted in accountability, transparency, and clear communication, principles that foster trust and elevate the standard of union representation. I am committed to ensuring that every member feels heard, respected, valued, and confidently represented.

I bring a proactive, solutions-focused approach to leadership, grounded in fairness, equity, and the protection of member rights. Through consistent engagement and decisive action, I contribute to initiatives that build integrity, strengthen relationships, and support long-term organizational stability.

Participation in the PSAC Convention in 2027 will further expand my leadership capacity and enable me to contribute meaningfully to national discussions that affect our members and our union. I am driven to support forward-thinking initiatives that enhance member engagement, strengthen representation, promote solidarity, and help shape the future direction of our union.

As a delegate, I will represent Local 633 with professionalism, integrity, and a results-driven mindset. I will amplify the voices and concerns of our members, actively participate in discussions and decision-making, and bring back valuable knowledge and strategic insights that can strengthen our Local. I see the Convention as an opportunity not only to learn and grow as a leader, but also to contribute to building a stronger, more inclusive, and more effective union that is responsive to the evolving needs of its members.

I am committed to returning from the Convention with new perspectives, practical strategies, and renewed determination to serve our members and advance the collective interests of Local 633.
