ROSLYN RAGOBER

UNION LEADERSHIP & ADVOCACY EXPERIENCE
LOCAL 00648

Actively represent members by speaking up, challenging “this is how I get it done” approaches that pursue practical solutions and positive resolutions.

Union Member March 2021 – Present
Steward May 2026-July 2026
Elected 1st Vice-President of Processing in July 2006- present

Demonstrating early member confidence and leadership. Advocate consistently for fairness, transparency, accountability, and equitable treatment of members.

•Using all available resources and avenues to support members, including Ombudsman complaints, DTA and ATIP requests, Health and Safety processes, and PeopleSoft resources.

Provide members with guidance, information, and resources to help them understand and exercise their rights.

•Advocate directly with senior government officials, including meeting with the President of the Treasury Board to raise members’ concerns and challenge the impacts of the Return-to-Office (RTO) mandate.

Contacted Members of Parliament on my own time and provided members with resources to engage their own elected representatives.

Advocated for members who were denied DTAs, including cases where I believed the circumstances warranted further review and intervention.

Demonstrate active representation by acting rather than remaining an observer.

•Earned the continued trust of members through strong electoral support and repeated election as their representative.

Committed to ensuring members have a voice, receive meaningful representation, and achieve the best possible outcomes

Core Strengths: Member Advocacy • Leadership • Representation • Problem Solving • Accountability • Transparency • Government Relations • Workplace Rights • Conflict Resolution • Strategic Advocacy