Stacey Watt – Candidate for Delegate, PSAC 2027 National Triennial Convention

I am a committed and experienced union activist dedicated to strengthening our union through member engagement, education, equity, and collective action. Throughout my union service, I have taken on leadership roles that have allowed me to advocate for members while supporting the growth of strong and effective steward networks.

I previously served as Treasurer for CEIU Local 638, ensuring financial accountability and transparency, and as Vice-President of Stewards – Call Centre for CEIU Local 570, where I mentored stewards and strengthened workplace representation. I currently serve as Vice-President of Call Centre for CEIU Local 570, advocating for members, addressing workplace issues, and supporting effective workplace activism.

At the national and regional levels, I serve as the Ontario Regional Representative on the CEIU National Call Centre Committee and as Liaison Manager for the CEIU Ontario Regional Women's Committee. These roles allow me to bring members' voices forward while advancing initiatives that empower women and strengthen our union.

I am committed to continuous learning and leadership development. I recently attended the Canadian Labour Congress Women's Summer School, completing the Women in Leadership course, which further strengthened my skills in leadership, advocacy, and organizing. I also participated in the PSAC Ontario Treasury Board Mobilization Summit, enhancing my ability to mobilize members and support collective action.

As a delegate to the 2027 PSAC National Triennial Convention, I will bring my experience, passion, and commitment to representing members' voices. I am dedicated to continuing my growth as a union leader, expanding my activism, and working collaboratively to build a stronger, more inclusive, and more engaged union for all.
