TED CABANES
FOR
PSAC National Triennial Delegate

HOWDY FOLKS!

My name is Ted Cabanes (he/him) and I am the current elected 2SLGBTQIA+ representative on the PSAC Ontario Council and CEIU National Human Rights and Equity Committee 2SLGBTQIA+ Male Representative. I am asking for your support to be elected to the upcoming PSAC National Triennial as a delegate.

I am committed to continuing to build strong, and inclusive spaces both within the employer and our union where every member's voice is heard with a focus on an equity lens. Being meaningful and understanding with our actions brings the strongest change.

My vision is simple: advocating and advancing equity and human rights by strengthening and supporting our component's voice through our National Committees in all aspects of work. I believe in building stronger connections across all PSAC components, regions and equity groups to create a more unified and coordinated labour movement.

I eagerly anticipate collaborating with everyone regardless of result to create a more inclusive, accountable and equitable union for all.

GOALS

- Advocate for a transparent and comprehensive approach for the enforcement of Human Rights for all members
- Creating greater mobilization and understanding of union solidarity and strength with the general membership and union leadership
- Education for our members on harassment issues related to the 2SLGBTQIA+ and other equity groups with an intersectional lens
