TERRI-LYNN IVEY

OBJECTIVE

To be in a position which I can use my French, organizational and marketing skills, to work as a team member or independently, to meet Union goals. I was elected for the Sydney 80226 Executive as their Communications Officer, and I believe having the opportunity to experience and showcase the executive functions of the PSAC Union would be extremely beneficial to the members of my local, and beyond. I hope someday to be employed with PSAC.

PROFILE

I am a team player who can motivate members, can excel when working independently. I possess excellent people skills; I can effectively communicate with others in a manner conducive to the values and ethics code of a Department and I am knowledgeable with the Collective Agreement of the PA group. I show initiative by taking on new challenges and facing difficult tasks with enthusiasm. I am a proven leader with experience in team coordination and action management. I am flexible and easily adapt to shifting priorities.

EXPERIENCE

I have designed and initiated several mobilization events such as: Truck or Treat for CEIU of Cape Breton Island, NS, assisting in Christmas local event, organizing meet and greets with local executive in the Sydney and New Waterford Area. Advertising rallies and creating an updated version of social medial postings and in-office bulletin boards.
