I am putting my name forward to represent CEIU BC/YT at the PSAC National Triennial Convention. With more than 18 years of union involvement, I have developed a strong understanding of the challenges and opportunities facing our members, locals, and union leaders. Over the years, I have witnessed firsthand the importance of strong representation, meaningful member engagement, and collective action in advancing the interests of workers.

I am passionate about grassroots engagement and believe that a strong union is built on active, informed, and empowered members. I am committed to fostering transparency, accountability, and open communication at all levels of our union. Ensuring that members' voices are heard, respected, and reflected in decision-making processes is essential to maintaining trust and strengthening our collective power.

Equity and inclusion are also values that guide my approach to union activism. I believe our union is strongest when all members have the opportunity to participate, contribute, and be represented. I am committed to supporting policies and initiatives that promote fairness, diversity, and equal opportunity within our union and our workplaces.

As a delegate, I would bring a collaborative approach to convention discussions and decision-making. I recognize the importance of the PSAC National Triennial Convention in shaping the future direction of our union, setting priorities, and addressing the issues that matter most to members across the country. I would be dedicated to ensuring that the perspectives, concerns, and priorities of CEIU members in BC/YT are effectively represented and advocated for.

I bring a commitment to ensuring CEIU's perspective and priorities are represented. I recognize the importance in shaping PSAC future and would be proud to represent CEIU and BC/YT.
