Wickna Selvaratnam
Candidate for Delegate to the 2027 PSAC National Triennial Convention

I am Wickna Selvaratnam, a dedicated CEIU member at Local 614, proudly serving as Local 614 Vice President and ORC GTA District Representative 1 (Toronto District Representative). As a Case Processing Officer at Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) in Mississauga, Ontario, I bring frontline expertise and unwavering commitment to our union's mission.

Union Leadership Experience

As Local 614 Vice President and GTA District Representative, I represent members from IRCC, ESDC, and IRB, advocating for workplace rights, resolving grievances, and guiding members through key challenges such as Workforce Adjustment (WFA). My leadership has strengthened communication channels, empowered local stewards, and amplified member voices at regional council meetings and beyond. I have coordinated labour-management consultations and mobilized support during critical negotiations to ensure fairness, accountability, and progress for all members.

Professional Background

In my role at IRCC, I manage complex immigration cases with precision, efficiency, and strong analytical skills in a high-volume environment. This experience enhances my understanding of how policy impacts members and equips me to provide informed perspectives on operations, equity, and service delivery at the national level. My daily work reinforces the connection between strong unions and effective public service.

Commitment to CEIU

As your delegate, I will champion equitable opportunities, transparency, and unity. I am committed to bridging GTA priorities with national objectives to ensure strong and effective representation for all members. Together, we can continue to strengthen CEIU and advance our collective goals.
